The Legend of the Forget-Me-Not

When to the flowers so beautiful
The father gave a name,
There came a blue-eyed one
All timidly it came
And standing at the fathers feet,
And gazing in His face
It said with a low and timid voice,
And yet with gentle grace,
"Dear Lord, the name Thou gavest me,
Alas I have forgot."
The Father kindly looked on him
And said "Forget-Me-Not"

Beneficiary Annual Holiday

Every year Charles Ward- the Chairman of The Comforts Fund arranges a holiday to St Annes for the ELMC Beneficiaries, all paid for by The Comforts Fund. This year five residents from Hewlett Court were fortunate enough to be invited on this year's annual holiday.

On the morning of the holiday some beneficiaries made their own way to St Annes but some met at Hewlett Court. A buffet made by Hewlett Courts cooks Mel and Mariya and drinks were laid on for the beneficiaries that were meeting at Hewlett Court ready for their journey to St Annes.

Once there they stayed in The Clifton Park Hotel for a week were their food was provided and entertainment every night varying from singers and dancers and much more.

Winnie Telford, a resident of Hewlett Court said – "The holiday was absolutely out of this world, the hotel was wonderful – couldn't fault it, it was lovely place with a beautiful swimming pool. The food was really excellent. Winnie enjoyed walking to Lytham to the gardens with other residents from Hewlett Court and wants to thank Charles and Julie Ward for the invite."

Another resident from Hewlett Court that went was Marjorie Newton. Marjorie also wants to thank Charles and Julie for inviting her on the holiday and said "The Hotel was very good and the food and entertainment was excellent – especially the singing barman/waiter! I had a laugh with the Hewlett Court residents and also the new friends I made. I enjoyed the walks and having our lunch out. Julie Charles, Alison and Michael were ever so nice with us all."
