My Rememberer

My Forgetter's getting better
But my rememberer is broke
To you it might seem funny
But to me it is no joke!

For when I'm here I'm wondering
If I really should be 'there'
And when I try to think it through
I haven't got a prayer!

Often times I walk in to a room
Say "What am I here for?"
I wrack my brain, but all in vain
A zero, is my score

At times I put something away
Where it is safe, but, Gee!
The person it is safe from
Is generally me!

When shopping I may see someone
Say "hi" and have a chat
Then when the person walks away
I ask myself "who was that?"

Yes my forgetter's getting better
While my rememberer is broke
And it's driving me plumb crazy
And that isn't a joke!

New Look Newsletter

It's been just over twelve months since the first newsletter was published (hasn't it gone fast) so we thought why not spruce it up a bit! We hope you like the new look.

Welcome

I would like to wish Evelyn Handforth and Margaret Pemberton a very warm welcome to Hewlett Court. Evelyn and Margaret are now permanent residents of Hewlett Court. I am sure you will all join me in wishing them a happy and healthy future in their new home.

Margaret Taylor

Margaret Taylor, a former resident of Hewlett Court came for lunch on Wednesday 23rd July. It was nice to see her and I'm sure she had a lovely time chatting to all her friends and the residents and staff of Hewlett Court.
