Safe Haven

When wanderlust has faded and the anchor dropped at last,
Then it's into friendly waters far removed from a stormy past.
For no matter where I travel, overland, ocean or sea
It's the old familiar harbours that are best for you and me.

Permanent Residents

One of Hewlett Court's former short stay residents, Winnie Telford is now a permanent resident. I am sure you will make her feel welcome and join me in wishing her a happy and healthy future at Hewlett Court.

Harvest Festival

The children of Holcombe Brook Primary School came and performed their annual Harvest Festival on Wednesday 15th October for the residents of Hewlett court. ## Residents Corner

Dear Friends

Having recently read in the media and seen on TV, how some patients in both care homes and even some NHS Hospitals have been neglected and ill treated mentally and physically I thought it high time we ancients at Hewlett Court should count our blessings.

- 1 That Lord Hewlett founded this place and East Lancashire Freemasons have supported and maintained it in giving their financial and management talents free and generously.*
- 2 That besides her other Masonic work, as the controlling Manager and aided by Alison, her first lieutenant, a kindly system of care and thoughtful attention has been religiously maintained. Particularly in the selection of staff [they're great] and choice of Residents. Both are really good listeners, that is Julie and Alison. Their attention to hygiene and general cleanliness is first class.*
- 3 Food – even those super chefs of day on TV and newspaper can't find a menu to please everyone, but I can tell you our chefs at Hewlett Court have a very good try.*
- 4 Entertainment – A variety of trips, seaside, theatres, a barbecue, bonfire bashes and lunches at the Red Lion and several, too many to register. Much thanks goes to Charles Ward, there is no end to his entertainment effort.*

*So be thankful
And count your blessings
Thine Aye
R.S.F*
